Basis for Change

The roll of members of the First Church of Christ on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Galesburg, Ill. Church in 1837 lists Samuel Tompkins & wife Mary E. Tompkins along with the following Children of Samuel's: Sarah, Isaiah, Franklin, Tracy, Chiffoenette & Ruth as having been on the rolls at one time or another.

Except for Chiffoenette, Samuel and Lucy Tompkins's children went unrecorded in the Tompkins book unless 2608 Joseph is another name of one of the boys.

The 1850 census of Galesburg, Ill. shows the following children living with Samuel: Franklin, Ruth, James, Spencer, Milissa. The IGI listing of 1850 children of Samuel as James, Melissa, Ruth, Spencer. All Ages agree except for James who is listed as 10 here and 16 in 1850 census. The 1860 census lists James age as 20 matching the IGI listing. The above listings reinforce the position of Franklin and Ruth as Children of Samuel and because of their age also Children of Lucy. James, Spencer, and Melissa were children of Samuel and Mary Tompkins. An older child Mary had died in 1848.

With the possible exception of James, the listing of children for Samuel Tompkins and Mary Grinnell in the Tomkins-Tompkins book is wrong. These children were the children of a James Tompkins and Mahala Brooks. This James Tompkins was a son of Benjamin Tompkins. This according to an article titled "The Legend of the Lost Plantation and the Slave Girl" by Robert J. Flygare a grandson of Benjamin Tompkins and printed in Vol X #4 Winter 1978 of the Illinois State Genealogical Society Quarterly.
